Historical Britannica: extracted source

Encyclopaedia Britannica - Second edition, Volume 1, A-AST - EB.4

Source row 2330. Parser: nvidia/nemotron-3.5-parse.

This is model-extracted text, not a corrected transcription. OCR errors, reading order and region alignment require human review.

ARA [565 -]

Region region-0; provider order 0.

Arabis.

Region region-1; provider order 1.

metanifm, in order to be able to do his Imperial Ma- jelly the most effective fervo; and for granted upon him, that he was soon after appointed governor of that city's the confignez of which was, that the Araba were put in poffiofion of it by his treachers.

Region region-2; provider order 2.

9s The emperor being quite different at his conti- mual had liefee, it was targeted to him by the king Ghafas, who had fled to him for refuge, as we have already deferred, this, however deference has at fairs might be, they would be perfectly relieved by the affallation of the khalif. This piece of ferice be volnock to perform for the emperor's and difatthe ed one Wathek Ebn Mofader, an Arab of his tribe, and a realistic young man, to Medina for their purple. Watches, time time after his three, having ob-ferved the kalif to fall after under a tree, on which he had placed himself to ask to be oblivered by any one, drew hackgger, and was upon the point of diab- bing him is bat, as the Arab writers tell us, he was de- terred by a long, who walked round the khalf, and lieked all her still he spoke, after which he initially went away. This fruck Wathek with a profound everce for Omar, his came down from his tree where he had been attained by the line, confined its delinig, and embraced the M-tonecian religion.

Region region-3; provider order 3.

lif. This Omar offered to the jewellers of Medina, but they were ignorant of its value: the Mofens therefore logged him to keep it on his own rule; but this fate find could not be soffearable for to the pal- lic. It was therefore fold, and the money deposited in the pastu tiredly.

Region region-4; provider order 4.

About this time alfo, Khaled advanced with a bo- dy of troops at far as the Exiphants, and took Man- bij, Berna, Bates or Balia, exciting of the inhabitants toooo times for their perfect fourny, and imposing on them an annual tribute for the future. He also the chiefful made of Russian, Dolous, Kons, the Cyprus or Cyrus of the amorics, and forced other fortified towns, nothing being very skoler than land before him. Anne Elon Al As now likewise prepared for the redealing forms places in Belletine that till field out. While he remained in this province, he had a conference with Confiance the emperor's fan, who celebrated our perfude him to make peace with the Christians is but that he not agreeing to, unless they would confine to pay tribute, all those of an accommodation vanil-ed, and the gerural on both tides prepared to enter upon action. In the meantime no office come from the Christian ones, dery next appeared, who challenged the flountt man among the Mofens to fight him in single combat. The challenge was accepted by a young Arab officer of Namari who being anti-anced by a notion, derived from the prophet himself, that "the finite of the marryes roll the crops of green birds, that cat of the fruits and drink of the rivers of paradise," discovered an uncommon eagerels to encounter his enemy. But the Christian officer not only killed this youth, but once or the more of the Mofens who came to his affiliance. He was then attacked by SerpälEb En Jharble, one of the general, the man for weakened by falling, that he said force filand before him, and would therefore have been un-dookedly killed, had not a Greek horsem over op- preunely surprised, and with one kind of his mirar cut off the Chriftain's head. Serpäbl, greatly surprised at this deliverance, asked the Northern who he was, and from where he canary to which he replied in the following terms: "I am the unfortunate

To-clna Ehku Ekowaid, who first up for a prophets, and, lying again that, pretended to imprison." I confenqueence of having faced his life, Serpäbl introduced him to Armus and writing A letter to Onay, wherein he organized him with the legal proof Toloha had given of his reprename, he obtained his pardon from the Khalifa.

Region region-5; provider order 5.

Though the two armies did not come to a general engagement, yet they had frequent kirimilles, in which the Arabia always spot the better, and inom the Greek used every considerably. They together with the feverity of the fealon, which was then uncommonly cold, to depleted the soldiers, that they began to differ in great numbers. Confinement before, finding his troops to diminith daily, and the Arabs to grow fronger and firegrory roads the advantage of a temperature night to campe to Caferno, which Yezd had not been able to take, leaving his camp to be plondered by the enemy. This city are four often after involved by Armus, and at the Newokana from time Youkka, having made himselfment of takes Tri- Tripoli by teachers, feized 50 days from Cyprus and pol. Crete, which carried a flipply of arms and provins for

Region region-6; provider order 6.

Vol. L. 4 B the Region region-7; provider order 7.

Source record

bri-2330-cd9ad26429d1

Image SHA-256: `cd9ad26429d1ff54c029d20d1c534d93`

`22d59bc9c3037369e6a715816c005887`

Dataset revision: `309f765b1ecc83e0a7f7762e44b4a927a7555443`

National Library of Scotland, Encyclopaedia Britannica Illustrated (CC0).

https://huggingface.co/datasets/NationalLibraryOfScotland/encyclopaedia_britannica_illustrated/viewer/default/train?row=2330